On the present occasion six formed part as representing the dignity of the Emperor and six the Empress. While the crowd was patiently waiting the arrival of other troops and the approach of the heralds Prince Vladimir drove past in an open carriage. The Emperor's guards shouted, "Good health to you!" Soon after 200 Chevaller Guards, or regiment of the Empress rode to the ground in splen. the Empress, rode to the ground in splendid uniforms, which differ slightly from those of the Emperor's regiments. The helmets have golden eagles and large pennons of blue. Between the squadrons of the two regiments there was an interval for the two regiments there was an interval for the keyles and wasters of cere monies to the heralds and masters of ceremonies to take up their positions. When they apgendarmes rode among the people to clear SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE. peared there was the greatest excitement among the crowd. Half a dozen mounted

The two heralds were remarkably fine men. They were magnificent tabards, as if kings or princes themselves. At first sight one was irresistibly reminded of Henry VIII., as pictured at the meeting with the French King on the Field of the Cloth of Gold. Their vellow-silk tabards looked like a mass of gold. On their breasts was the large imperial eagle, work-ed in imperial colors, and a head-dress of ed in imperial colors, and a head-dress of white velvet and turned-up cap, with hang plumes of the imperial colors, and broad buff-top boots. Their horses had white trappings, with emblazoned eagles and the imperial colors. They were accompanied by six masters of ceremonies in tult gold-laced uniforms with the Secretary of the Holy Synod and the other officials in court dress. The Secretary of the Holy Synod, with another court functionary, rode out in front of the line. For a moment he was interrupted by the horse of one of the heraids which by the horse of one of the heralds which suddenly became restive. With the great-est difficulty the rider kept his seat. Some officers luckily closed round to prevent his being thrown. Certainly that would have been an unfortunate commencement of the ceremonies. At last the clock struck 9 THE INSTANT IT IS APPLIED, of Rheumatism, Couralist, Sciatica, Coughs, Colds, Weak Rack.

THE PROCLAMATION.

As translated from the Russian it was to the following effect: "The grand and puissant Alexander Alexandrovitch has ascended the throne of his ancestors and the thrones of Poland and of the grand duchy of Finland, undissolubly united with his sovereignty. And according to usage adopted by his glorious predecessors he has deigned to ordain that with the aid of the Omnipotent his coronation and the act of sacred unction should take plants. The proceeding to the complete the com Sunday next, and to such coronation should also be admitted his august should also be admitted his august spouse, Marie Feodorovna. The solemn announcement is made of this sacred act by this present proclamation to spouse, Marie Feodorovna. The solution of the sacred act by this present proclamation to all his faithful subjects, in order that they may renew their endeavors of piety and implore favor of the King of Kings that he would deign to bless with his almighty protection the reign of his Majesty and of his august spouse, and that He will assure to that reign the peace and tranquility which are indispensable for the glory of his holy name and the happiness of the Fatherland."

The Secretary of the Holy Synod, who was a smart, good-looking young man, discharged his duty well, and read in a clear, loud voice.

cross. The troops saluted. Then followed the scene of excitement already described. Two heralds riding forward threw copies of the proclamation broadcast. These immediately disappeared among the people. Another supply was then forthcoming. One enthusiastic spectator, had the audacity to ask the Secretary of the Holy Synod for a copy, from which he read a column, and then marched off to the next spot at which the cerethe next spot at which the ceremony was to be repeated. This was nearly in front of the monument of Muin and Pojarsky, the bands of the Emperor's regiment leading and playing the national anthem. At the conclusion of the reading of the proclamation the bands played the authem, and before the secretary commenced four trumpeters, two belonging to each regiment, gave a flourish of trumpets. The Emperor and Empress left yesterday evening for the Sans Souci Palace, a residence which formerly belonged to the Princess Orioff, in a lovely park surrounded by z white wall, against which mounted Cossaek vedettes with little wiry horses and guns slung behind them as they horses and guns slung behind them as they sat motionless, whip in hand, stood out with picturesque effect.

PRESS COMMENTS ON THE MOSCOW PESTIVI-

PRESS COMMENTS ON THE MOSCOW PESTIVITIES.

St. Petersburg, May 25.—The Journal De St. Petersburg, in an article reviewing the comments of the foreign press on the feeling of the people on the occasion of the Czar's State entry into the city of Moscow, says the spontaneous display of the devotion of the people on the day of the Czar's entry was a revelation to foreign journalists, who had long believed in the truth of the fable that a difference existed between Czars and the people. It expresses the hope that foreign journals will keep in recollection the fact, which is now manifest to all the world, that complete unity exists between the Russian people. The existence of such feeling will aid in giving the approaching coronation the character of a genuine festival of peace.

Jim Curry, who murdered Barrymore, the actor, in Texas, and was allowed to escape hanging, is now keeping a drinking-saloon called the Mountain Queen in San Antonio. New Mexico. On Saturday he paid off his barkeeper, who began to spend his pay in a rival saloon. Curry hit him over the head with a revolver, and fired several shots at him and then ordered him to leave town. The latter procured a rifle, and placing himself behind a pile of logs, fired sixty-two shots into Curry's saloon. Several "bums" sleeping there were wounded, and Curry, who laid beand a whiskey-barrel, was grazed twice.

WOODVILLE, containing 136 ACRES (exclusive of roads), has been surveyed and laid off into Divisions Nos. 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 13, 14, 15, 17, 18, 19, and 25, varying from 6 to 25 acres each, and will be sold in these divisions, or as a whole, as may be desired and determined at sale.

DIVISION No. 25 contains 25 30-100 ACRES, and includes on it all the improvements of WOOD-VILLE RESIDENCE TRACT.

The improvements consist of a VERY LARGE AND HANDSOME FLOWER-GARDEN, with EXTENSIVE HOT-HOUSES, all in thorough order; while the grounds are all laid off in nice gravelled walks and carriage-ways, embroidered by permanent plants and choicast evergreens.

The RESIDENCE is very neat: the HAND-SOME BILLIARD-ROOM, with all its appurtnances, stands comfortably near the same; while the many ont-houses, stables, and barns are tastefully arranged in the backgrounds.

This division, No. 25, can, if desired, be still further divided into three other divisions of 6. Sa and 9 ACRES each, leave each separately and independent, with shrubbery and lawn, and admirably suffed for a country residence; and as a whole, the product of the extensive hower-garden will alone be a most handsome income to any one purchasing the same, besides the luxury of a residence in the midst of a magnificent flower garden, with its walks trellissed with full-grown vince of the choleest variety of grapes.

DIVISION No. 15 is a choice spot of nearly 7 ACRES, with a NEAT FRAME DWELLLING and all necessary out-houses, surrounded by streets on all sides, and for a market-garden or summer residence in the product of the part of the product of nearly of grapes.

all necessary out-houses, surrounded by streets on all sides, and for a market-garden or summer residence is quite desirable.

DIVISIONS 17, 18, and 19 front on two wide roads, are in first-class condition, and well ienced in, and comprise respectively 8, 18, and 4 ACRES, or jointly about 25 ACRES, as a beautiful piece of ground, separately fenced to itself, berdered by two roads. For trucking, nothing more desirable. The adjoining DIVISION No. 6, is worthy of especial attention, being about 15 ACRES OF TABLE-LAND raised to a high state of fertility, with a large and well-arranged barn with the roof. This plot is bounded by three roads—broad, straight, and at right-angles to each other.

DIVISION No. 5 contains about 15 ACRES, with a FRAME HOUSE, not in good condition, being mused. The hard is same as Plot No. 6, and be bounded by three roads. This Division, as well as Division No. 3 and DIVISION No.4, with about 14 ACRES, fronts the broad and beautiful road leading to the pike, which is only a couple hundred of vards away. These divisions also join the two large dowers and not be sufficient of the pike. Which is only a couple hundred of vards away. These divisions also join the two large dowers and not be sufficient for a summer residence most desirable.

No money has been spared by Mr. Davis to bring each of these divisions to the highest state of fertility, and they being all fenced in by substantial high plank fencing, with roads so laid off as to give to each separate place a front on easy graded roads leading to the Mechanicsville pike, an unsural opportunity is afforded to those desiring substrain homes.
